

KAISER AND KING

Said to Have Decided Jointly To Press Their Claims

Against Delinquent Castro--Germany's Strength at Venezuela--The Monroe Doctrine in Carib- bean Waters Seems Menaced.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Vigorous action by Germany and England against Venezuela is expected in the immediate future.

The Venezuelan government under Castro has been, it is claimed, persistently violating the rights of the German and British subjects. Concessions held by virtue of grants or purchase from the preceding administration have been taken from them; contracts filled for government supplies not paid for; property and money forcibly seized and they have suffered imprisonment on trivial charges and other indignities. Claims for damages preferred by the German and British governments have been ignored year after year by Pres. Castro and now they propose, it is said, to use force to collect the money due and teach the Venezuelans that their citizens must be respected.

Working jointly, it is reported that Germany and England propose to seize the customs house in Venezuela, collect the taxes and pay themselves out of the money received. The United States declared that so long as they do not "permanently acquire or colonize" any part of the Venezuelan territory, the two European powers will not come in conflict with the Monroe doctrine, and will therefore not be interfered with by the United States. But in some quarters it is believed to be likely that actual war may result.

Birmingham, Eng., Nov. 28.—The Post says today that Count Larnach immediately after seeing Lord Lansdowne yesterday dispatched a long telegram to Berlin about the state of affairs in Venezuela. A special messenger followed this message by continental boat last night. It is reported, the paper says, that Britain and Germany will act jointly in collecting their claims against Venezuela. The Post adds: "There appears to be a hope that President Castro can successfully appeal to the United States against the two countries on the grounds that a violation of the Monroe doctrine is being committed, but the Washington government, though very tenacious on that head, is not likely to be prepared under the present circumstances to support Venezuela through thick and thin."

GERMANY'S STRENGTH.

Berlin, Nov. 28.—Germany is gathering naval strength in Venezuelan waters to protect German interests there. With the arrival of three cruisers ordered to South America yesterday Commander Scheder, in command at Venezuela, will have seven strong war ships and 1747 men at his disposal. Two more ships will be sent if necessary.

Three additional cruisers, the Niobe, Ariadne and Amazone, have been ordered to leave Kiel and proceed to Venezuela.

They will sail as soon as they can be made ready for sea. Telegraphic instructions were sent to the navy department ordering their immediate fitting out, and orders for abundant supplies of ammunition and other equipment have been issued. It is expected that the three cruisers will be all ready to sail about the middle of next week.

It is authoritatively stated that England and Germany have agreed upon joint action to enforce their claims against Venezuela.

They are exchanging views respecting the form of action to be taken. The details have not yet been settled, but only slight differences exist.

ACCIDENT THEORY

And the Russian's Friends Receive a Shock by Dem- onstration That Gun Can't Go Off by Falling --The Death of Mrs. Gore.

Paris, Nov. 28.—Correspondents here have been notified that the government has suppressed portions of their cables concerning the tragedy by which Mrs. Ellen Gore lost her life.

The accident theory and Rydzewski's friends have received a shock from the agent of the firm owning the patent of the revolver by which Mrs. Gore was killed. The agent demonstrated by throwing the pistol to the pavement that the pistol was undischarged by falling. The agent says the revolver is dischargeable only by the hammer coming into contact with the cartridge.

The Americans here continue indignant at Rydzewski for permitting and probably fostering the allegations that Mrs. Gore was his mistress, when the circumstances of her life are proof to the contrary.

Rydzewski has cynically requested a lock of the dead woman's hair and the fatal bullet as souvenirs.

Speaking of the case, Consul General Gowdy said:

"Letters in evidence show that Mrs. Gore feared the Russian. I am waiting for the correspondence now in the judge's hands. If the theory of the accident advanced by Rydzewski's friends is true why do they watch him so closely? Do they fear his suicide? But suicide follows fear, not accident?"

Rydzewski is burly and licentious looking. He is unrefined and is lacking in the high ideals credited to him. He is the guest of Mr. Schlichting, the Russian councillor of state, and is feasting his friends since his release as though he were a hero.

The Russian is a consummate actor and said dramatically:

"She is dead, dead. She whom I love so much. Would that I could reverse the dead to life. What an ineffable misfortune, what an abominable accident that a poor young woman should be killed brutally!"

MRS. GORE'S FORMER HUSBAND.

San Francisco, Nov. 28.—"I wish to say that in giving this statement to the press I am actuated by the fact that I have learned from the telegraphic reports from Paris a disposition on the part of the Russian element there to cast reflections on the character of Mrs. Gore.

"Although I am as completely severed from my former wife as if I had never married her, I feel called on to give, as one who knew her best of all, and as a matter of common justice to her memory, my testimony as to her exemplary character.

"She was a woman of the highest ideals, and in my opinion, absolutely incapable of wrongdoing—in fact, just the woman who would sacrifice her life for her honor.

"The facts regarding our divorce have been incorrectly stated in some reports. My wife was passionately fond of her art and devoted herself to it. As long as ten years ago she left me in her pursuit of it to leave our home in Mexico for months, almost yearly, to visit musical centers in search of the best instruction.

"It is not surprising that we grew apart under this condition. A separation of almost two years was followed by an amicable division of property I had accumulated in the City of Mexico, and last summer she asked for an absolute divorce, mutually agreed upon and uncontested by me.

"In conclusion I will say that I have always entertained the highest regard for my unfortunate wife's many sterling qualities of heart and head as well as admiration for her physical gifts and deepest respect for her moral rectitude.

"On learning of her untimely end upon landing from my steamship I was inexpressibly shocked.

"THOMAS SINCLAIR GORE."

INSURES THE LIFE OF ITS SIX HUNDRED CLERKS

New York, Nov. 28.—The Equitable Life Assurance society has announced to the clerical force at its home office that the society would forthwith insure the life of each employee for $1,000 and keep the policy in force so long as he remains in the employment of the society, one-half the amount of insurance to be paid at the employee's death to his wife or family, or other designated beneficiary, the other half to go into a fund to be used by the officers for the pensions or in other ways to provide for the living employees who have grown old or infirm in the service of the society. Over 600 persons are effected.

Fayerweather & Dawes, incorporated, manufacturers of leather belting, have made the announcement to their employees that a re-adjustment of wages had been made based on the period of usefulness and the efficiency of each employee. The result was a general advance benefitting 600 employees.

ANNEXED

THREE MORE ISLANDS FOR THE ENGLISH KING.

Villages Were Shelled and Were Partly Destroyed by the English Warship Sparrow.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 28.—According to advices received from Sydney by the steamer Aorangi, H. M. S. Sparrow has returned from a protracted cruise through the South sea group.

During the cruise the warship's officers annexed Suvarrow, Yasbel and Choiseul islands for Great Britain.

At Malaita island five villages of the natives were shelled to punish the islanders for having killed a Fiji Indian woman because she embraced Christianity. With a view to impressing the natives with the seriousness of the crime committed by them and of warning them against a recurrence of such acts the Sparrow visited five places in the island of Malaita, namely, Auki, Sio, Uai and Port Diamond and at each place the villages were shelled and partly destroyed.

The steamer Ventnor, which recently took lumber from this coast to the Orient, has been foundered near New Zealand, when bound from Wellington to Hong Kong with coal and 500 coffins containing the remains of Chinese for interment in China.

The Aorangi brings news that on October 28 the Ventnor struck the rocks southeast of Mount Erskine and being floated continued her voyage. Next day she began to fill and soon became unmanageable. All hands took to the boats and had barely time to get clear before the steamer sank. One of the boats containing seamen, third officers and 11 of the crew failed to reach shore. Those in the other boats which made land, say the missing boat was drawn under when the vessel foundered.

SUDDEN CHANGE

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 28.—There was summer weather here yesterday and almost as cold as dead of winter today. Roses in bloom yesterday are dead today from a killing frost. The second strawberry crop is ruined.

SUMMER HOUSE BURNS.

New Orleans, Nov. 28.—The Summer House on Ashton plantation, 21 miles from New Orleans, was totally destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $205,000. Insurance $85,000.

KAISER

Bestows a Token of Friendship

On Retiring Ambassador Andrew D. White.

PRESENTED WITH MEDAL AT THE FAREWELL AUDIENCE.

THE PRESIDENT'S BEAR HUNT

Is Laughingly Referred to by the German Emperor Who Compliments
Mr. White.

Berlin, Nov. 28.—Emperor William in his farewell audience to Ambassador White presented him with the gold medal of the empire for science and art, which is given once a year to a person, either a German or a foreigner, who in the opinion of the Government is best entitled to it. His Majesty added that as a personal remembrance he was having a porcelain vase made at the royal works here for Mr. White.

With Emperor William when Mr. Roosevelt's letter of recall were Count Von Eleberg, the Grand Marshal of the Court, and Baron von Demknebeck, the introducer of Ambassadors, who drove to the palace with Mr. White in a royal carriage. The United States flag was raised over the palace as Mr. White approached.

Emperor William was very cordial in his reception of the retiring Ambassador. His Majesty said he appreciated how much Mr. White had tried to forward a good understanding between the United States and Germany, and added:

"The only thing you have ever done that I do not like is your leaving us." The Emperor alluded laughingly to Mr. Roosevelt's hard luck while bear hunting in the South, and begged to be remembered to him personally when Mr. White wrote to the President.

Mr. White mentioned His Majesty's speech at the railroad station at Es-sen, and the Emperor replied, with feeling: "Herr Krupp spent his life in doing acts of mercy and kindness to others, and how cruel have been the attacks upon him!"

After the audience Mr. and Mrs. White lunched with Emperor William, who kept with him for two hours. The others at the table were the Grand Duke of Oldenburg, Prince Henry and Princess Henry of Pless and the newly appointed German military and naval attaches at Washington. The Empress was not present, being at Potsdam. The Prince of Pless, who is just back from America, where he represented Emperor William at the opening of the building of the New York Chamber of Commerce, said:

"I gave me an admirable time. I was especially pleased with the beauty of Washington." The Prince talked for some time on the clear-cut, intellectual types of men he had met, and gave the Emperor an animated description of his experiences.

His Majesty parted from Mr. White with many kind expressions.

Etiquette requires that an Ambassador shall leave Berlin as soon as convenient after a farewell audience, but Mr. and Mrs. White must remain here to be present at the dinners to be given in their honor by Chancellor Von Buelow on Saturday and Secretary Von Richthofen on Monday.

Mr. White's medal is somewhat larger and thicker than a $20 gold piece. Emperor William's head is on one side and an emblematic figure with an inscription on the other.

TRAGEDY THOUGHT DUE TO JEALOUSY

Sneedville, Tenn., Nov. 28.—In Hancock county, in the mountains of upper East Tennessee, Richard Green probably fatally shot his wife and daughter. He then shot and killed himself, using a shotgun. The discharge of the gun ignited his clothing and when found his apparel was burned from his body. It is supposed jealousy or insanity was the cause of the deed.

Green did the first killing in the Jones-Green feud ten or twelve years ago. The wife and daughter may recover.

FRAU KRUPP ESTABLISHES IMMENSE BENEFIT FUND.

Essen, Prussia, Nov. 28.—Frau Krupp has given $750,000 to establish a benefit fund for the workmen here in memory of her late husband.

Oldest Ohio Banker Dead.

Bellefontaine, O., Nov. 28.—Robert Lamb, president of the People's National bank of this city, died Thursday. He was the oldest active banker in Ohio.

BETWICHED INDIANS STARVED TO DEATH.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 28.—United States Commissioner Marshal Hepburn and Prosecuting Attorney Lyons have returned to Umeau from Hoonah, where they held inquests over the remains of the starved Indians. The red skins had been starved to death by their tribesmen because they were believed to be bewitched. One was tied to a tree and compelled to stand eight days and nights without food under heavy rains, the object of this treatment being to exercise the evil spirits of which he was thought to be possessed. The federal officers placed the entire tribe under arrest during the investigation. Four men found directly responsible for the barbarities were taken to Juneau under charges of murder.

BOTH ASPHYXIATED.

Albany, Nov. 28.—Wm. Hogeboom and wife of East Colchester, were accidentally asphyxiated by gas last night.

SCHWAB TALKS

ABOUT WEALTH, TELLING WHAT IT MEANS.

Says There is Pleasure in Riches if Properly Employed—And Drawbacks, Too.

Paris, Nov. 28.—Since the arrival of President Schwab's parents, mother-in-law, and brother-in-law, the millionaire has recovered his old time gaiety. He is devoted to his mother and strolls and drives with her daily. The correspondent chatted with Mr. Schwab about the pleasures and disabilities of wealth. Pointing to a table in the room Mr. Schwab said:

"Look at that heap of cards, telegrams and letters which I have received since the papers announced my arrival in Paris. Behold the power of the press! I have worked upon that pile until I am tired. I intend to instruct the clerks not to send up any more.

"Yes, there is pleasure in riches if properly employed. Their use should be altruistic, not selfish. The old teaching that we can do what we please with our own is wrong. Wealth means responsibility; more wealth, more responsibility. Observe how the German emperor is realizing the responsibility. He works incessantly to the end that wealth may make the path of life a little easier. The man who helps others judiciously feels better for it. All this reverts to the question of the brotherhood of man.

"Wealth has drawbacks under certain circumstances. It attracts undue publicity. It tends to make public aspects of life which ought to be private. It is harder for men of wealth to find rest than men of moderate means. There is wisdom in the phrase 'Give me neither poverty nor riches.'

"But all depends on the use made of it. For wealth increases one's opportunity of doing good. That's the meaning of Shakespeare's counsel. 'Put money in thy purse.'

"Some newspapers once accused a member of my family of being a successful speculator. She does not know the difference between stocks and bonds. At the end of the week we are all going to Cannes to join the yacht."

TWO MEN DROWNED.

East Liverpool, O., Nov. 28.—Elmer Lewis and an unknown man of Monaca were drowned in the river here. Their skiff upset.

BIG FOUR FLYER

Was Wrecked This Morning By a Broken Rail

Three Sleepers Left the Track, Injuring a Number of People Badly--Miraculous Escape From Death of Many.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 28.—The Big Four train exposition flyer No. 43, which left Indianapolis for St. Louis at 12:05 this morning was wrecked five miles east of Danville by a broken rail.

The injured are:
Isaac J. Bier, Rochester, N. Y., slight injury to left chest.
G. F. Hair, St. Louis, left side of back badly sprained.

Mrs. S. A. Englehart, Middleport, O., scalp severely injured.

Miss Annie Englehart, Middleport, injury to left side.

A. G. McGuire, St. Louis, right knee out.

Charles Lamb, St. Louis, wound in right side and neck.

N. Y. Ware, colored porter, New York, slightly hurt.

Louis, arm sprained and right foot mashed.

Otto Gresham, Chicago, shoulder dislocated.

Chester W. Wood, Los Banos, Cal., head cut.

Harry L. Klein, Cleveland, nose mashed and right foot hurt.

Samuel Ellis, colored porter, right wrist badly hurt.

H. J. Wendorff, New York, bruised.

W. H. Ray, St. Louis, bruised.

George Brand, Norfolk, Va., slightly injured.

George C. Dean, St. Louis, Pullman conductor, back and hips injured.

Three sleepers left the track, and all the injured were in those cars. The train was almost filled with passengers. That there was no loss of life is almost miraculous.

Engineer Dopell had the throttle open and with a heavy pressure of cars behind him, was sending the train along at least 40 or 50 miles an hour. When asked how fast he was running, Dopell said: "I was sending her for all she was worth."

The wreck occurred about two miles from the telegraph station at Avon and a man was sent back to the station for help. Dr. Charles A. White, the Big Four surgeon at Danville, gathered all the physicians but two in that town; they drove to the wreck, reaching it about 3 o'clock this morning. A request for all possible medical aid was received in this city at 2 o'clock from Danville, and at 3:30 a relief train consisting of a baggage car and day coach left for the scene of the wreck.

At 6:20 a. m. the relief train carrying the physicians and Supt. Van Winkle returned to the city. The physicians reported that 12 persons had been injured but none of them seriously, the majority of them being bruised and cut by broken glass. They did not in fact, have occasion to open their instrument cases as the physicians from Danville had already attended to the injured. Some of the injured, they said, had continued on their western way and others were removed to Danville.

Otto M. Gresham of Chicago, who is one of the injured, is a son of the late Walter Q. Gresham, secretary of state.

DROWNED HER BABY

But Fear Prevented Her From Following It to Death Pitiful Condition of An Anguish Crazed Mother.

New York, Nov. 28.—"Oh, sir, please let me go to my baby. I will get her out of the water. And, oh, I will take such good care of her. I will surely find some good home for her, though I tried all the institutions, and they refused to take my baby in. Please let me go to her, for I loved her so."

So pleaded Mrs. Rosa Quinn, who had confessed that she had drowned her infant child in Central Park lake. When the woman was arraigned she presented a pitiful sight. Her face was swollen from weeping. All night long she had paced the corridor of the East 67th street police station moaning and crying for her dead child. In her confession the woman said her home was in County Leitrim, Ireland where her aged parents live. Two years ago she came to this country and secured a position as chambermaid in the Fifth avenue hotel. She there met the father of her child, who, she says, deserted her before the baby's birth, three weeks ago, at Ft. Hamilton, where he was attached to the artillery. He is now in Maine, she says.

Being homeless after the birth of the child in a lying in hospital on November 3, the woman said she had visited several charitable institutions about the city and tried in vain to induce some one to care for her child. "I became discouraged last Sunday," she said. "At one place where I took the child I was turned away because they said they did not take children on Sunday. What was I to do? I could not care for the little one. I decided to end its life and my own at the same time."

"I walked along in Central Park in the afternoon, and I saw happy mothers with their children and their nurses caring for their happy charges. I came to the lake. There was a strange fascination in the water.

"I kissed the baby and dropped her in the water. I wanted to jump in myself, but a strange feeling came over me which seemed to say, 'Save your child.' I was stooping down trying to find the baby when a strange man came in sight, and I ran away."

Mrs. Quinn is a young, light-haired woman, thoroughly unspoiled. The police believe she is going insane. Policemen were in tears when the woman had finished her plea, and Magistrate Crane with effort concealed his emotion. When the police were taking her from the courtroom the woman in her delusion thought she was on her way to save the baby's life, and confided wild plans for taking the body from the water to the officers.

COTTON EXPORTER ARRESTED FOR SWINDLING

New York, Nov. 28.—Wm. Landau, said to be a wealthy cotton exporter of Texas, was arrested here yesterday on suspicion of being connected with a swindle involving, it is said, the sum of $200,000 or more. The firm alleged to be swindled is that of Landenburg, Thalman & Co., bankers of this city. The detectives took every precaution to prevent the news of the arrest becoming public, and it was admitted only when an assistant district attorney stated that the prisoner was at police headquarters. The arrest, according to the assistant district attorney, was made in the office of this banking firm. Members of the firm will not talk about the case and further details are lacking. The charge against Landau is "suspicion of a felony."

DENISON LOST

Thanksgiving Game to Miami at Dayton, Ohio, by Score of Twenty-Four to Five.

Dayton, Ohio, Nov. 28.—The annual Thanksgiving football game between the Denison and Miami teams resulted in a victory for Miami by a score of 24 to 5. Last year Denison won 6 to 0. The result of the game was a surprise as both teams have been playing about an even game. Denison had the ball on Miami's 1-yard line when time was called at the end of the first half.

In the second half a Denison man was tackled and thrown on Miami's 5-yard line and lost the ball, and thus failed a second time to score a touchdown.

Byrne, a Dayton athlete, and Reed played a star game for Miami, Byrne clearing the end several times.

Two Pretty Weddings.

Two very pretty weddings occurred at St. Paul's Lutheran church, the Rev. J. C. Schindel, pastor, officiating, last Wednesday evening. At 8:15 Mr. Edward L. Graef and Miss Clementine Calista Ball, accompanied by Miss Besie Woodard and Mr. Jay Lentz, were made man and wife. Mr. Graef is a successful and prominent tobacco manufacturer and Miss Ball enjoys the respect and esteem of a host of friends in her social set. They will make their home at No. 125 South Fifth street.

At 8:30 Elsie V., the charming daughter of David C. and Alice A. Wilson, plighted her troth in holy wedlock to Mr. Edward R. Evans. Mr. and Mrs. Evans will reside at No. 19 North Cedar street. The full service of the Church was used in both ceremonies.

Stahl-Millholland.

Mr. Charles Stahl, a highly esteemed young man of this city, was married Thursday at the First M. E. parsonage by the pastor, Rev. L. C. Sparks, to Miss Minnie Millholland, daughter of Rev. Mr. Millholland of Vienna, O. They will make their home at 46 North Pine street.

Nichols-Beckford.

Mr. Oren Nichols, a well known painter, son of Mr. George Nichols, of Channel street, was married Thursday night at 7 o'clock at the residence of Rev. A. N. Miller on Granville street, to Miss Clara Beckford. They were accompanied to the parsonage by the sister of the groom and brother of the bride. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Nichols will go to Leipsic, O., to visit the parents of the bride.

THE SICK

Mrs. Hannah Denman, who has been quite sick at her home on South Second street for the past week, is reported considerably improved.

Henry Wilson is confined to his home on Clinton street with an attack of facial neuralgia.

PUBLIC RECITAL.—A public recital will be given by Miss Mauger's class in music at Outville, O., in the Presbyterian church, December 13, at 8 p. m. Admission 10 cents. Proceeds for the church.

LITERATURE, ART AND MUSIC.

NEWARK WINS

Defeating the Neal Athletic Club by a Score of 12 to 6 Here on Thursday.

The Newark football team defeated the Neal Athletic Club eleven of Columbus, at the East Newark grounds on Thursday afternoon, by a score of 12 to 6. The game was closely contested, and was enjoyed by a fair crowd, who applauded the play of the Newark boys.

In the first of the two 20 minute halves, Columbus scored a touchdown, Walker securing the ball near the Newark goal after W. Martin had fumbled a punt. In a couple of plays Walker was pushed over for a touchdown which was converted into a goal. The half ended with a score of 6 to 0 in favor of Columbus.

In the second half Hartshorn was shifted from half to quarterback, while Heisey went in at halfback. The change wrought good for the Newark team, and by successive line plunges, a 30 yard run by Heisey and one for 30 yards by Martin, Heisey scored a touchdown for Newark and afterward kicked a goal. Soon after the next kickoff on a fumble Hartshorn got the ball in a scrimmage and getting out from the pile of players before any one knew where the ball was, went 55 yards for the second and last touchdown, from which Heisey kicked goal.

The teams lined up as follows: Newark—Gore, r; Mullinix, rt; Adkins, rg; Evans, c; Horn, lg; Coan, lt; Fisher, le; Hartshorn, qb; B. Montgomery, l hb; Hartshorn, Heisey, r hb; R. Martin, (capt), fb.

Neils—Walker, re; Condon, r t; Killian, r g; Knecht, c; McCabe, lg; Seawart, lt; Hutton, l e; Enright, qb; Foster, M'Anley, l hb; Brown, r hb; Harrison, fb.

Umpire and referee, alternating, Homer Jones and Merle Montgomery.

THE SEASON CLOSES.

The football games on both Eastern and Western gridirons, closed with the Thanksgiving Day struggles, and great crowds witnessed the sport.

Throughout the west the weather was great for the players, but a little cool for spectators, while the gridirons were soiled and in many cases sloppy.

The greatest surprise of the day was the disappointing score made by Ohio State against Indiana. The team's supporters had hoped and expected the scarlet and gray to beat Indiana by a good score, but instead, they only made 6 points, and allowed the Hoosiers to cross their goal line for a touchdown from which goal was kicked, the final score being 6 to 6.

The result proves what has been said in this paper before that O. S. U. is the greatest "in and out" in the history of Ohio football. One day "they play like champions, the next like chumps." In view of the great game put up by Ohio State against Illinois, when the westerners were held 0 to 0, a week ago Saturday, gave their supporters every reason to believe that they would defeat Indiana decisively and they should have gone to Indiana was woefully weak this season. Denison beat them 27 to 6, Purdue, 20 to 0, Chicago 29 to 0 and Ohio State should have won by a score of at least 18 to 0. But fate will be back next season and he has the makings of a great team, which we expect to be developed at Ohio State. The national football championship will be contested between the two teams, one made a touchdown and the other a field goal.

DR. GLADDEN

Says Endless Harm and Confusion are in the New Municipal Code Law Recently Passed.

Columbus, Nov. 28.—In the Thanksgiving sermon Dr. Washington Gladden talked on "The Needs of Our City" and incidentally said: "Ohio's new municipal code, lately enacted into a law by the Legislature of the State, is an ill-contrived, clumsy and ponderous piece of machinery. The system of municipal government which has been in force in the state of Ohio was bad enough but the new system as established by the passage of the code bill is far worse. In the hands of politicians and characterless administrators it contains the possibilities for endless harm and confusion."

WOMAN SHOT BURGLAR

But the Big Negro Escaped, Carrying Away $12.50 From the Luce Residence on Decrow Avenue in West Newark.

Missing—one 200 pound darkey with bullet wound freshly made in his left leg just below the knee. When last seen the man was making hurried tracks toward the western limits of this city.

Mrs. Opal Luce, a young woman living at No. 135 DeCrow avenue, West Newark, told this morning of her exciting experience with a big burly negro, while alone after dark at her residence.

While waiting for her husband who is first helper at the Newark Iron and Steel Company's plant in the West End, to come home to supper, Mrs. Luce stepped up stairs and came face to face with a big colored man who at that moment was rummaging through the bed in the room. Mrs. Luce neither screamed nor ran, but calmly demanded the man's business in the house.

Without stopping to explain the negro started to leave the house but Mrs. Luce hurrying into another room returned with a six shooter just in time to see the fellow take three steps from the second floor to the front hall and vanish through the door. Taking hurried aim the brave woman fired six shots at the fellow, at least one of which took effect. The disappearing man's yell and blood spots on the porch were evidence enough that one of the six 32 calibre balls hit the mark. This bullet, says Mrs. Luce landed in calf of the man's left leg.

An examination of the room showed that the stranger had been there long enough to find and get away with $12.50, fifty cents from Mr. Luce's trousers which hung in the room and $12 from a book which had been sequestered in the bed. Nothing else was taken.

The Luce house is located near the B. & O. and Pan Handle main tracks and this is the third time within six months that it has been visited by burglars. It was this fact which had caused Mrs. Luce to have a loaded revolver at hand. Some time ago burglars entered the house through a window and stole some books and pictures, and recently some one got away with a $5 bill, having picked the lock in the back door.

Mrs. Luce says that she was perfectly calm during her encounter with the burglar but as soon as he was out of sight her nerves gave way and she was so deeply agitated that she could hardly tell Mr. Luce about it when he arrived from the shop a few minutes later.

DEMAND

For Money Followed By Brutal Murder of a Family.

Vienna, Nov. 28.—The Neue Presse today prints a dispatch giving the almost total obliteration of a family of eight in Matchukovo, Turkey, by Macedonian emissaries.

According to the dispatch the emissaries demand 1,000 francs from a parish elder of the place and when the money was refused the emissaries chopped the elder's wife and six children to pieces. They then demanded 2,000 francs to be paid within a week on penalty of a like death being visited on the elder.

Brewery Workers.

The brewery workers of Cincinnati lost their fight against the engineers and firemen, the American Federation of Labor taking action at the New Orleans convention, and deciding that all firemen and engineers employed in breweries must belong to their respective international union. Driscoll's substitute was carried, which provides that engineers must belong to engineers' union and firemen to firemen's union. The Brewery Workers' Union delegates wished to be recorded in the negative, and so ordered. It is conceded that the action taken by the Federation will eventually kill the strike of the brewery workers.

CAR RUNS WILDLY DOWN STEEP HILL

Des Moines, Nov. 28.—Two persons were fatally injured and six seriously hurt in a street car collision at the foot of Sixth street hill Thursday.

The street car got away at the top of the steep hill and crashed into another car at the bottom, six blocks away. The runaway car telescoped the second car and darted into the entrance of Lawrence's drug store where it was checked by an iron post.

Although both cars were crowded with passengers, most of them escaped by jumping.

When the debris was cleared away, Mrs. J. H. Frawley was found under a stove fatally injured. Helen Frawley, aged 10, may die from injuries sustained.

MISS BURNS

WHO FIGURED IN THE BROOKS TRAGEDY

Is Now the Bride of C. W. Wildrick, Who Has Had Troubles of His Own.

New York, Nov. 28.—Florence Burns the handsome young woman, whose name was heard so often in the Walter Brooks tragedy at the Glen Island Hotel, is a bride.

She was married Wednesday to Chas. W. Wildrick, son of the late Lieutenant Colonel Wildrick, U. S. A.

Young Wildrick had known Miss Burns long before the dead body of Brooks was found in the hotel and before suspicion fell on Miss Burns.

Wildrick wanted to marry the girl then but his suit was refused.

Monday he met Miss Burns in New York and renewed his suit. Wednesday she consented.

Wildrick, too, has something to forget. His arrest in July, 1901, for passing a worthless check on the proprietor of the Fitzgerald House was made sensationally interesting.

Mabel Strong, the beautiful daughter of a Cleveland merchant, arose from her sick bed to bid a last farewell to the man she loved.

She died soon after in St. Luke's hospital from consumption.

It was after this event that Wildrick met Miss Burns and fell in love with her. But Miss Burns' beauty had attracted others. Among them was Walter Brooks, a young business man of Brooklyn, who seemed to find more favor in her eyes than did the others.

Then came the finding of Brooks' body. The police seeking to fix the crime of murder settled at last on the girl, whom Brooks was to have married, but after a searching examination, Magistrate Mayer refused to hold her for the grand jury.

THE W. C. T. U.—Mrs. Lucy Van Kirk of Granville, county president of the W. C. T. U., will give a report of a national convention held at Portland, Maine, on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock at the First M. E. church. Everybody is invited.

INTERESTING FACTS

For Nearly Every Man, Woman or Child.

A short time ago we published an article recommending to our readers the new discovery for the cure of Dyspepsia, called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the claims them made regarding the wonderful curative properties of the remedy have been abundantly sustained by the facts. People who were cautious about trying new remedies advertised in the newspapers and were finally induced to give Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial were surprised and delighted at the results. In many cases a single package costing but 50 cents and in every instance the most beneficial results were reported. From a hundred or more received we have space to publish only a few of the latest, but assure our readers we receive so many commendatory letters that we shall publish each week a fresh list of genuine, unsolicited testimonials and never publish the same one twice.

From James Yemmesler, LaCrosse, Wis.: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are doing me more good than anything I ever tried and I was so pleased at results that I gave away several boxes to my friends who have also had the same benefits.

From Jacob Anthony, Portmurray, New Jersey: I have taken Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with the best results. I had Dyspepsia for 6 years and had taken a great deal of medicine, but the Tablets seem to take right a hold and I feel good. I am a farmer and lime burner and I heartily recommend to everyone who has any trouble with his stomach to use these Tablets.

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston, Minn.: I have received surprisingly good effects from using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I gave one-half of my last box to a friend who also suffered from indigestion and she had the same good results.

From Mrs. Agnes K. Ralston, Cadillac, Mich.: I have been taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I am very much better, and feel very grateful for the great benefit I have received in so short time.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of indigestion. They are not claimed to be a cure-all, but are prepared for stomach troubles only, and physicians and druggists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from Nervous Dyspepsia, sour or acid stomach, heartburn, bloating or wind or stomach and similar disorders.

FORCED

To Travel in Zero Weather Many People Died.

Vienna, Nov. 28.—Die Information today reports that the Czar recently decreed the expulsion from Russia of 50,000 Armenians who fled to the Czar's domain to escape the massacres in their home lands. Cossacks, according to the paper, drove the expelled Armenians to the frontier of Turkey but here the Armenians were refused admission over the line. They were driven back only to meet the Cossacks and a second time be driven back to the frontier. Thus, the paper says, they were driven back and forth in zero weather. A big mortality has occurred in their ranks.

ACCUMULATED WEALTH. Newport, R. I. Nov. 28.—In Trinity church, where worships Newport's notable families, a sermon on the evils of divorce and the evil of concentration of wealth in a few hands was preached yesterday by the Rev. W. Neilson McVickar, bishop coadjutor of Rhode Island. Several divorcees members of families of prominence and great wealth, listened to Bishop McVickar's words. He gave as the cause of class hatred the attainment of wealth by the few and the refusal of capital to treat with labor. "The accumulation of the wealth of the country in a few hands," he said, "bodes no good to the people of America."

THEIR PAY INCREASED.

New York, Nov. 28.—The Lake Shore has increased the pay of its conductors. Five hundred switchmen on the Michigan Central have had their wages raised about ten per cent.

B. W. Duer Appointed Superintendent

Pittsburg Division.
It has been officially announced that Bruce W. Duer was appointed superintendent of the B. & O.'s Pittsburg division. Word of the approval of President L. F. Loree of the recommendations made was received Wednesday. The appointment has been expected almost since the resignation of former Superintendent S. P. Hutchinson was announced. The appointment gives universal satisfaction among the employees, because the new superintendent is a hale fellow well met.

Bruce W. Duer has been with the B. & O. road for years. He has seen much service as a train dispatcher, and has had years of experience born of direct operations, including transportation matters. Though a young man he knows the B. & O. from end to end. And this, not by means of information picked up in a superficial manner, but by virtue of actual experience born of contact with real conditions encountered in the service. He is, therefore, above all else, a practical man. This is imperatively needed in this district. The operation of the Pittsburg division of the B. & O. by railroad men, is regarded as the most difficult problem afforded by Pittsburg railroads. That the chief officials have the utmost confidence in Mr. Duer's ability goes without the saying.

Mr. Duer first became known to Pittsburg folks during the regime of William Gibson, when the latter was general superintendent of the Pittsburg system, during the management of Messrs. Cowan and Murray. He had previously seen much service with the company at the Baltimore headquarters, and his coming with Mr. Gibson in the capacity of chief clerk was largely because of his practical knowledge of railroad affairs. Subsequently when Mr. Gibson left this city to become general superintendent of transportation, vice D. F. Maroney, transferred to Pittsburg, Mr. Duer was returned to Baltimore, taking up the reins as chief clerk in the transportation department. He remained in that capacity until it became necessary to create a Pittsburg office with full jurisdiction in transportation matters. In casting about for a proper man to place in charge, Mr. Duer was selected. This was about two months ago. This last recognition of his abilities is not only gratifying because of it being a just reward of merit, but it marks a step in a career that has a bright future. The step from one of the departments to the position of superintendent in charge of a division like the Pittsburg division of the B. & O. is not easy, but, once made, bids fair to open the way for some of the best berths in the railway world. In proof of this is the advancement of M. B. Cutter, Mr. Hutchinson and several others. Mr. Duer's appointment is effective December 1.—Pittsburg Post.

GASOLINE

Mistaken for Coal Oil Causes an Explosion at Marion.—Two People Badly Burned.

Marion, Nov. 28.—John Lawrence, a helper in the Haber blacksmith shop, was dangerously, if not fatally, and his wife badly burned by an explosion of gasoline at their home on Greenwood street.

Mr. Lawrence attempted to start a fire with what he believed to be coal oil. The can had been filled with gasoline by mistake, however, and an explosion occurred.

Lawrence was enveloped in clouds of flame and his wife who rushed to his assistance was badly burned. Mr. Lawrence jumped into a cistern to extinguish the flames.

GOV. NASH

NAMES ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION COMMISSION.

Seven Men Will Have $75,000 to Dispose Of.—Ohio Building to be Erected.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 28.—Governor Nash on Thanksgiving announced the names of the Ohio commission to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition which is to be held at St. Louis during the year 1904. The full commission is as follows:

Wm. F. Burdell, Columbus.
L. E. Holden, Cleveland.
Edwin Hagenbuch, Urbana.
Newell K. Kennan, St. Clairsville.
David Friedman, Caldwell.
M. K. Gantz, Troy.
D. H. Moore, Athens.

There were about 50 applicants, mostly politicians, for the positions, and never in the history of the state regime was there such a scramble for plums which apparently has no salary attached.

Taking everything into consideration the commission is considered a fairly good one, but the governor has not forgotten to pay back a few political debts. William F. Burdell is well known in this city as a banker and politician.

L. E. Holden is one of the proprietors of the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Edwin Hagenbuch is a prominent politician of Champaign county, and is chairman of the committee of railroads and telegraphs, and is also a member of the finance committee, which provided the coin for the junket.

Newell K. Kennan is a Democrat and is a prominent manufacturer of Belmont county. His appointment is a worthy one, but incidentally is salve to the Belmont county people for the turning down of Senator Archer, who wanted the job very badly.

David Friedman is a Caldwell merchant and is a Republican of the Hanna clan.

M. K. Gantz is a former member of Congress and is a well known Democratic politician of Troy. It is said that he had the aid of prominent Republicans for having taken an active part in a Democratic factional fight. His strongest opponent was Clement Brumbaugh of Darke county, who wanted the job. It is said Mr. Brumbaugh was at the governor's office several times in his own behalf.

David H. Moore is a Republican and is chairman of the Senate committee on finance—the committee that delivered the goods. He received the appointment for service rendered.

The commission will have $75,000 to spend, $35,000 of which will be used in erecting a building and the balance, $40,000, will go toward paying the "expenses" of the commission.

GAS PRESSURE LOWER.

New Castle, Ind., Nov. 28.—The pressure of gas in this district has decreased to such an extent that the company will tomorrow order all who are using gas for lighting purposes to discontinue and to remove all fixtures. This means that oil will be resorted to until the electric power station is equipped with another dynamo in order to meet the demand.

RELENTED

WHEN SHE SAW MOTHER AND SISTER FAINT.

Mrs. Wallace Allowed Them to Keep the Corpse of Her Husband, Harry Wallace.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Essie Wallace, who sued out a writ of delivery to secure the corpse of her dead husband, Harry Wallace, relented when she saw the mother and sister of the dead man faint away. She was allowed permission to attend the funeral, and permitted the corpse to remain in the possession of the sister.

After securing the writ of delivery Mrs. Wallace and her mother visited the home of Charles Higgins, where the corpse of Wallace lay awaiting burial. Mrs. Wallace was accompanied by a special constable and undertaker. The constable instructed the undertaker to strip the corpse of its shroud, as the shroud and coffin had been furnished by another undertaker. When Mrs. Higgins, the sister of the dead man, heard this and realized that the body of her brother was to be removed she and her mother fainted. Then the wife felt sorry for the mother and sister and agreed to let the corpse remain where it was.

MANEUVERS

Of the Navy to Begin Soon—Torpedo Flotilla and the Panther Join the Fleet.

New York, Nov. 28.—Since the arrival here of Rear Admiral Higginson's fleet, the blue jackets of that command have been engaged, says a Herald dispatch from Culebra, W. I., in cutting a canal across the narrow neck of land which separates Great Harbor from the larger bay, thus affording an easy passage from one harbor into the other.

The Panther, with 500 marines on board, who have been doing duty on the isthmus of Panama has arrived and was placed in quarantine as a precautionary measure. When it is considered safe her detachment will join the 700 now in camp, forming a complete regiment, which will take part in the coming operations.

The torpedo flotilla of seven vessels has arrived from San Juan and gone to its berth in Great Harbor, where the vessels will be made ready for duty as scouts in the search problem.

The fleet is engaged in routine drills, pending the arrival of the colliers, which are daily expected.

Notice to Pupils in Great Seal Drawing Contest.

We want to impress upon you the necessity of dealing honestly and fairly in this contest. The work must be done by the pupil and no one else.

We have heard of several instances where pupils have requested some older members of the family to paint their books and have even learned of cases where artists have been asked to do the work. This is not fair and in order to have your work compete with others, you must do the work yourself and let it lose or win according to its merit.

We believe the instances are very few where such deception would be attempted and trust this warning will show those who have proposed this method, that they will be denounced should we learn of any prizes being awarded for work not done by the pupil.

Great Seal Prune Laxative will prevent Fevers and Colds, if taken when the symptoms are first noticed. It is far better than Pills or Oils that gripe or leave through nausea an uncomfortable condition; besides it is so pleasant that the babies will crow with delight as soon as the cork comes out of the bottle. For sale by all druggists. Try it.

THIS IS TRUE.

The wise outlay of money is in a permanent home. There the family comes together daily after the stress and storm of life as to a refuge. The possession of a home, however humble, gives one a sense of permanency, of vested rights; awakens public spirit and patriotism and arouses emulation. It is a foundation on which to build, a point from which to advance. Every flower enhances the value of the home and endears it to the heart and memory, hallowed by a tender association, endeared by recollection.

Sad Thanksgiving.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—It was a sad Thanksgiving for Mrs. Wm. Blair. Light hearted, in the midst of the family reunion that had been planned for the day, she visited the home of her parents, Wm. and Rosaline McIlwaine and found them dead in bed. Gas that was escaping from the kitchen range explained the cause.

FINE DINNER

AT HOME OF THE FRIENDLESS ANIMALS AT CHICAGO.

Cats and Dogs Feasted on Turkey and Steak Served by Two Chicago Women.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—A Thanksgiving dinner which rivaled the feast given by Henry Lehr for his Newport pets was served to over 100 inmates of the Chicago Home for Friendless Dogs and Cats, 80 Twenty-sixth street.

The ragged little waifs which were fed at the home were not there, however to entertain members of the 400, as was the case at the recent dinner given by Henry Lehr. They were there, many of them, to enjoy the first turkey bone they had ever munched in all their sad careers.

Mrs. Charles A. White, who found the home some two months ago, and Miss Cora McConnell, who has assisted in the work, had arranged for the dinner which surpassed that served in many homes of the poorer of Chicago. The feast included turkey, good beefsteak, mutton bones and biscuits for the 50 or more dogs.

The menu for the cats' dinner included chicken broth, toothsome bits of chicken, plenty of good rich milk and palatable dainties made expressly for the occasion.

Promptly at 3 o'clock, when the savory smells of roast turkey and cooking viands were wafted through the cages of the inmates, every pink little nose was poked through the screening; every cat gave a sharp little mew, and every dog barked as only a hungry dog can.

These animals of the clean faces and good behavior were permitted to occupy places at a long table spread in the center of the room, while the alley cats, neglected and ragged looking, were served in their own little cages. There were all sorts and conditions of cats and dogs—ugly, yellow and unwashed cats, saved from a sad fate by these humanitarian women, sleek-looking collie dogs, and English spaniels, choice Arabian white cats, which had been abandoned by heartless mistresses, and big, soft-eyed English setters, waiting patiently to be claimed by a good master.

White House China.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The report sent out from Washington that the old chinaware of the White House is to be sold at auction as soon as the new dinner set is received, is officially denied. "The White House china is never sold," said Colonel Bingham, superintendent of public buildings and ground. "As soon as the new china is received, it is kept until it is broken and unfit for use. Many thousands of pieces of china from former administrations are kept as priceless heirlooms in the White House." The new "Roosevelt set" of Wedgwood will comprise 1295 pieces.

F. L. U. MEETING.—The regular meeting of Federal Labor Union No. 338 will be held tonight at 7:30, at which time matters of great importance will be transacted, not only to organized, but unorganized labor. Every laboring man in the city is invited to attend this meeting.
